- Verbal Report from Fire Chief

The Lambton College students were provided with practical experience at the Fire Hall for 4 weeks. It worked very well and excellent training was provided by many of the Village firefighters. Some examples of the training included the WRIT program and high angle ropes.

The firefighters have converted a golf cart to resemble a small Fire truck for use in Fire Prevention exercises, Bridgeview School fire programs and other community activities such as the Senior's Fair.

Training by Dave Dick of EMS was provided to firefighters for care of EMS dogs in the event they are wounded or injured in the line of duty.

Chief MacKenzie and Fire Prevention Officer MacGregor attended the BEMC Course for emergency management.
