Accessible Services for Persons with Disabilities

“The Village of Point Edward is firmly committed to providing accessible, quality services.”

Point Edward’s Accessible Customer Service:

Personal Assistance:

Your guide dog, service animal or support person is welcome to visit our facilities with you to help you access our services and goods.

Assistive Devices:

Our facilities have assistive devices to enable those with mobility difficulties to reach our services and goods. If our assistive devices are not easy to find, just ask one of our staff members.

Service Interruptions:

If for whatever reason we have an interruption in our services we will provide you with, where possible, advance, reasonable notice.

Training and Communications:

Our staff members are specifically trained to provide their services and goods to persons with disabilities. They are prepared and willing to meet your needs!
